Lifts Your Corn Right Off. Never Fails.

"Ever in your life see a corn come out like that? Look at the true skin underneath—smooth as the palm of your hand!"

Well Now, Look at That! Off Comes That Pesky Corn as Slick as a Whistle.

The earth is blessed with the one, simple, painless, never-failing remedy that makes millions of corn-tormented people happy, and that's "GETS-IT". Apply it in 2 seconds. It dries. Some people jab and dig at their corns with knives and razors—wrap their toes in packages with bandages or sticky tape, make them red and raw with salves. Nothing like this with "GETS-IT". Your corn loosens—you lift it off. There's nothing to press on the corn, or hurt. Angels couldn't ask for more. Try it tonight on any corn, callus or wart. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

Rev. Robert James McBryde, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., formerly rector of St. George's Episcopal Church in Fredericksburg, and for 22 years rector of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, in Lexington, died Wednesday at Raphine, Rockbridge county, where he had gone to spend the summer. He had been in declining health for some time.

While police were scouring the Richmond parks and suburban districts yesterday afternoon and O. P. Renolds was searching Hollywood Cemetery for his wife, who, it had been reported, was contemplating suicide, Ellen Herbert, a colored maid in the Guerrant Hotel, died Wednesday at Raphine, Rockbridge county, where he had gone to spend the summer. He had been in declining health for some time.

Senators Martin and Swanson, speaking for the tobacco interests of Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, called upon Secretary of State Lansing this week to request representations to Germany for a withdrawal of the German ban against American tobacco. Mr. Lansing, who has negotiated with Great Britain for the privilege of sending American tobacco to Germany and Austria, stated that he would do what he could to change Germany's stand. Unless Germany rescind here order against tobacco the negotiations with Great Britain will have no point and doubtless will be dropped.

Miss Josephine Murphy, daughter of William J. Murphy, the millionaire editor and owner of the Minneapolis Tribune, was killed yesterday when an automobile plunged over a steep embankment.

Two men, Kinney Kearns, and John Merritt of Albemarle, N. C., were killed yesterday afternoon near that place when they ran into a southbound train at a grade crossing.

AEROPLANES BOMB BRUSSELS

Squadron of 15 Fliers Attacks City Soon After Midnight and Are Plainly Seen by Many.

The Hague, Sept. 8.—Brussels was bombarded by a squadron of 15 aeroplanes Wednesday, according to an eye-witness of the raid, who has arrived here. He said he was sitting with friends in a hotel in the centre of the city when the squadron appeared overhead. Anti-aircraft guns immediately went into action. It was then 1 o'clock in the morning, he said, and some time previously soldiers had issued warnings for the extinguishing of all lights.

The aeroplanes were seen distinctly, he declared, and some flew so low that they seemed to touch the roof of the hotel, but their nationality was not made out. Guests in the upper rooms of the hotel fled hurriedly downstairs. Intermittent bomb explosions and firing continued until daybreak. One machine, he added, was reported to have been brought down at Porte Louise, on the outskirts of the city. He said the damage done had not been ascertained when he left Brussels.

"This was the most important raid in a long while," he said. "Smaller affairs occur almost every day. These frequent air visits by entente aeroplanes hearten the Belgian people wonderfully and inevitably lead to exaggerated notions of the impending departure of the Germans."

BREAD TO GO UP A CENT.

Six Cents A Loaf Will Be Price in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Sept. 8.—Six cents a loaf will be the price the people of Baltimore will be called on to pay for bread within the next week or 10 days.

No advance in the price of the 10-cent loaf be made, the loaf will be made, but the loaf that has heretofore been sold for 5 cents will be increased one cent. The wholesale price will be raised from 4 cents a loaf to 5, but the distributor is not expected to do more than pass along the one-cent increase to his customers. The bakers hold that one cent a loaf is sufficient for handling bread and any attempt on the part of the corner groceryman to add another cent as an extra profit for himself will be resisted.

NEW PENSION BILL PASSED.

Raises Amount From $12 to $20 A Month and Restores "Widows."

Washington, Sept. 8.—A bill giving to widows of officers or enlisted men who served in the Civil or Mexican Wars or the War of 1812, and who have reached the age of 70 years, pensions of $20 a month, instead of the present $12, was passed yesterday by the Senate. It already has passed the House.

Widows of Civil War soldiers dropped because of marriage to another person are restored to the roll by the bill.

The brief debate on the bill did not disclose the additional cost to the Government.

Suit for $1,000,000 was filed by Henry Ford, the Detroit automobile manufacturer, against the Chicago Tribune in the United States District Court in Chicago yesterday, Mr. Ford asks for personal damages as compensation for an editorial printed in the Tribune June 23, which, it is charged, called Ford an "anarchist." The bill charges the Tribune "sought to bring the plaintiff into public hatred, contempt, ridicule and financial injury," by publishing the editorial. The editorial, it is charged, referred to Mr. Ford as "ignorant," a "deluded human being, and an anarchistic enemy to the nation which protects him in his wealth."

The editorial also charges that employees of Mr. Ford would lose their positions if they went to the border as members of the National Guards.

Yesterday morning James Haley Puckett, while at work at the Savage planing mill in Petersburg was fatally injured by a plank which "kicked back" as it was going through a planing machine. The unfortunate man died soon after. The deceased was 29 years of age.

R. G. West, of Austin, Texas, who was en route to the Virginia Military Institute, is under $500 bail in Lynchburg to answer a charge of chloroforming and robbing Mrs. Jennie A. Gordon, of $75 in a hotel in Lynchburg. West was bailed soon after his arrest by Rorer A. James, a member of the board of visitors of the Virginia Military Institute. The woman has identified West as the man who chloroformed her, but he stoutly denies the charge.
